

Free and Open to the Public!

HOUSING EMPOWERMENT SERIES

Our Housing Series is designed to provide valuable information and resources to tenants, landlords, and anyone interested in housing rights and responsibilities. Each session is focused on a different aspect of housing, featuring expert speakers and providing practical guidance. These events are free and open to the public, welcoming tenants, landlords, and housing advocates alike. Join us to learn, ask questions, and connect with community resources!

SCHEDULE

|                         |   |
|-------------------------|---|
| JUNE      | BASICS OF FAIR HOUSING AND SECURITY DEPOSIT June 25, 2024   5:00 - 6:30 PM   200 Henry Johnson Conference Room &amp; Zoom                 Learn the fundamentals of fair housing laws and how to handle security deposits. This session will cover tenant rights, landlord obligations, and best practices to ensure compliance with fair housing regulations.                                       |
| JULY      | TENANT AND LANDLORD RESPONSIBILITY W/ CODES July 16, 2024   5:00 - 6:30 PM   200 Henry Johnson Conference Room &amp; Zoom                 This session will delve into the responsibilities of tenants and landlords, focusing on building codes and regulations. Gain insights from Josh Gold, a Senior Code Enforcement Officer, on maintaining safe and compliant housing.                        |
| AUGUST    | LEGAL REPRESENTATION/EVICTION HELP August 22, 2024   5:00 - 6:30 PM   Washington Avenue Library                 Facing eviction or need legal assistance? This session with Legal Aid Society will provide information on how to access legal representation and what steps to take if you're facing eviction.  |
| SEPTEMBER | MENTAL HEALTH AND DISABILITY RIGHTS WITHIN HOUSING September 25, 2024   4:30 - 5:30 PM   Washington Avenue Library                 Discover the rights of individuals with mental health conditions and disabilities within the housing sector. This session will address accommodations, legal protections, and support services available.   |

Check website for updates on future programming!